

PARAGON HOTEL
BIRMINGHAM

The Paragon Hotel

The Paragon Hotel is steeped in history. Built in 1903 the building is Grade II Listed and is a magnificent example of Victorian Gothic architecture at its best.

The Paragon Hotel offers excellent facilities for conferences, seminars, banqueting and all your hotel needs. ■

renaissance of the
IRISH quarter

Birmingham Moor Street Train Station

The Paragon Hotel

Many aspects of this beautiful building have been lovingly restored in keeping with the Victorian era. Eight of the former bedrooms have been replicated for historical interest at the request of the City's Conservation Department.

The Paragon Hotel offers a flexible range of Conference & Banqueting Suites, which cater for both business and the local community. With 250 bedrooms available, you can choose from a selection of double, twin, single or the newly enhanced superior bedrooms.

The spacious, fully licensed Naylor's Bar offers a congenial and friendly atmosphere with a range of popular beers, wines and spirits. The Princess Helena Restaurant offers a variety of tasty dishes from around the world.

• hotel frontage

• superior bedroom

• naylor's bar

• banqueting suite

Situated less than 1 mile from Birmingham's vibrant City Centre, its central location provides you with easy access to the main transport networks. Birmingham International Airport and the National Exhibition Centre are approximately 8 miles away. Situated close by is the International Convention Centre and the National Indoor Arena. ■

renaissance of the
IRISH quarter

For more information and reservations visit: www.paragonhotel.net or contact us on: 0121 627 0627
Paragon Hotel Birmingham, 145 Alcester Street, Birmingham B12 0PJ